Postpone the trip

- A written notice should be sent to us 15 days prior to the trip departure date in case of Nepal while for the outbound tour it should be sent to us 30 days prior to the trip date.
- In the case of postponing of Nepal tour, minimum USD 100 will be charged as a current trip cancellation charge and the remaining amount will be transferred for the postponed trip.
- In the case of postponing of Tibet, India and Bhutan Tour, the trip cancellation charge will be charged as per the trending market rate of that country. It solely depends upon the ongoing policy of our agents in Tibet, India, and Bhutan. For now, 20 % of the trip cost and 50 % of the trip cost will be charged in case of postponing of India and Bhutan and Tibet trip respectively.

Incomplete Tour

Peregrine Treks regret to state that we are not liable to refund in case of an incomplete tour because of the reasons of the clients.

Force Majeure

In the case of Force Majeure like war, climate conditions, natural disasters and sudden change in political situations we would transfer your fund for the next trip. We can always travel together present or in future.

Price Changing

We reserve our rights to change the price under various circumstances. Though our action will be reasonable like in the case of some circumstances such as a drastic change in exchange rate, inflation, government actions, etc., we are not liable to answer anyone for our action.

Travel Insurance

It is highly recommended for you to have travel insurance before embarking the trekking or tour in Nepal. Your insurance shall cover medical expenses, personal equipment, and emergency helicopter rescue. The insurance of the support crews based in Nepal would be done by Company itself.

Flight Delay/Cancellation

Flight delays and cancellation are quite often during the bad weather condition in the remote areas particularly in Everest region, Annapurna region, Dolpo, Simikot and Jumla region etc. Therefore, it is advisable to carry some extra money to buy food and accommodations in case of delays. Peregrine Treks and Expedition Private Limited will not be responsible for any of the additional expenses. Therefore, please plan accordingly.

During the tour

In case you commit any unlawful act during your tour and you are compelled to leave Nepal, We are not liable for any kind of refunds.

Warning

If you book your trip with us through any agents or third party, you shall be liable to their terms and conditions. Therefore book with us directly and our Terms & Conditions are applicable to such clients.
